What Do We Offer?

Accredited by CEA (Commission on English Language Program Accreditation), CPELI provides you with the Intensive English Program (IEP), and a variety of custom programs on English language learning and American culture.

CPELI accepts international students from around the world, transfer students from other schools in the U.S., and literally anyone who wants to learn English and explore the U.S. culture.

Why You Should Apply?

Immerse yourself in the English language, learn about American people and culture, improve your communication and presentation skills, make international friends, and get ready for degree programs.

Besides core classes, students will participate in cultural exchanges, English tutor sessions, intramural sports, celebration events, tours & excursion, and many more.
